

It Doesn't Announce Itself

It doesn't announce itself.

Not loudly.
Not clearly.

You don't get a signal.
No warning.

Just—

a pause.

Something
slightly off.

Something

you almost ignore.

But you don't.

You look again.

And now it's there.

Not new.
Not placed.

Just... noticed.

What changed wasn't it.

It never needed to try.
